2024-25 Unusual Circumstance Appeal Dependency Override / Unaccompanied Youth Determination

Dependency Override

A dependency override is an appeal in which the student is requesting to be considered as an independent student on the FAFSA which does not require the student to report parental information. A dependent student may qualify for this appeal if:

1. The student does not live in the physical custody of their legal parent(s)*, AND
2. Unusual circumstances prevent the student from contacting their parent(s), OR
3. If contacting their parent(s) pose a risk to the student.

*A legal parent includes a biological parent, an a
